Naas, Sallins and Two Mile House Parish Novena

Our Novena was a wonderful blessing for our parishes as evidenced by the response of the hundreds of people who attended nightly.

We were inspired by the insights, faith and courage of our speakers.

And, we felt a deep sense of pride in all the parishioners who 'volunteered' so generously in all aspects of the Novena each evening. It was a collective effort and its success was testament to two words:

generosity and faith.

This weekend we express our grateful thanks.

Please see the newsletter next week for more photos from the Novena.
